Form Steering Committees

Four steering committees are created, one for each party in each chamber. Each has its own unique structure that is determined by party rules, and the parties frequently make small changes. Some steering members are directly chosen by floor leadership. Some are automatically elevated because of their position as a party or committee leader, such as the deputy whips. Other steering members are elected by rank-and-file members to serve as regional representatives.

Deliberation and Voting

Steering committees formed for several weeks, the steering committee members debate how they will assign spots on the legislative committees. During this time, colleagues will lobby them for desirable assignments. Steering committee members eventually reach consensus on the assignment list and vote to finalize them.

BLACK EDGE
CONSULTING

3.

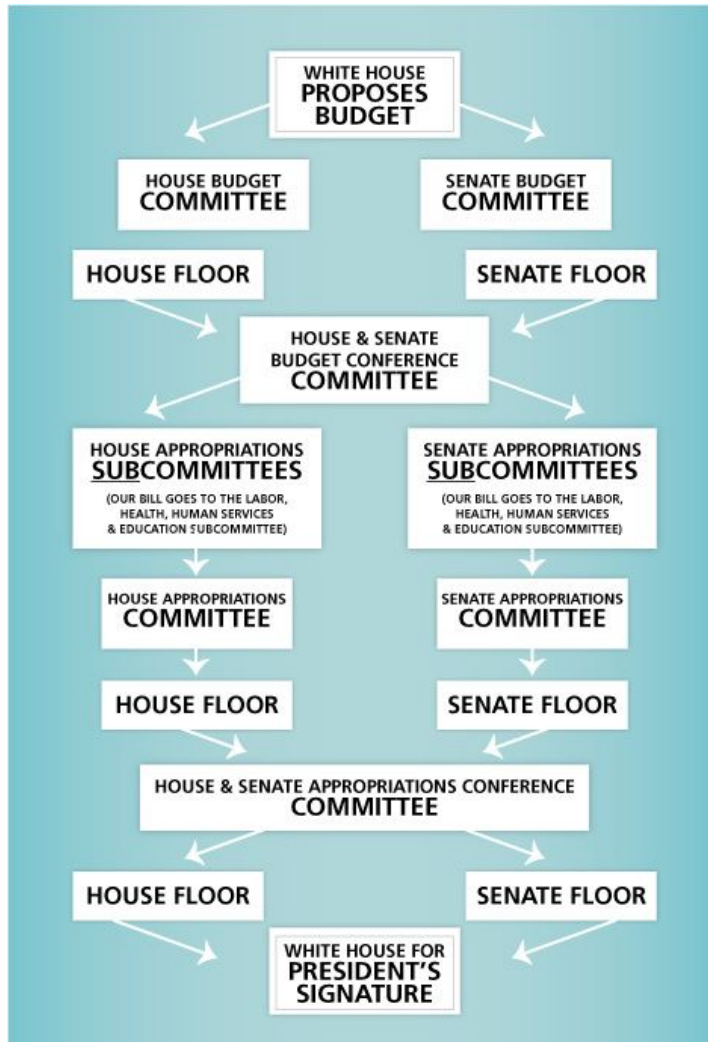

Final Votes & Approval

Once the steering committee has made its recommendations, the party caucus as a whole will vote to approve. Then, the entire chamber will vote to approve both parties' lists. These votes are largely a formality, since the steering committee recommendations are always accepted.

Appropriations Cycle

Quick Guide to the U.S. Appropriations Process

Appropriations Cycle

- January: Annual appropriations process begins for the next Fiscal Year (October 1 - September 30)
- All year, and especially from January-June: Build support through calls, letters, meetings, and media on key issues
- March-April: Ask members to sign Dear Colleague Sign-On Letters “wish-list letters” that are submitted to State and Foreign Operations Appropriations Subcommittees (March in the House, April in the Senate)
- March-April: Get members to attend hearings on key issues in the House Foreign Affairs Committee, Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and House and Senate Appropriations Committees
- May-June: Key appropriations markups and votes in subcommittees
- September-October: Appropriations negotiations between House and Senate leadership and White House ahead of the final budget. If Congress and the President do not agree on a budget in time, Congress must pass a “continuing resolution” to extend the deadline, otherwise the government is “shutdown,” closing/furloughing non-essential programs and federal employees.

The Federal Budgeting and Appropriations Process

How do we influence funding? 3 key ways

- 1) Write letters, call, and meet with our members of Congress (MoCs) urging them to contact SFOPS committee leaders who determine foreign aid funding priorities.
- 2) Receive and submit “funding request forms” to our MoC offices. Deadlines are in early March.
- 3) Get MoCs to sign onto “Dear Colleague letter” petitions. The deadlines are in March-April, and these letters are sent to the Chair and Ranking Member of the SFOPS committee.

Dear Colleague Letters

Starting in February and continuing into late March or early April, SFOPs will hold hearings, take input from advocates, and, most critically, receive “wish list letters” or “Dear Colleague Letters” from members of Congress. The Chair (majority party leader) and Ranking Member (minority party leader) of SFOPs will consider input from their subcommittee members and from all members of Congress. PIH Engage advocates will meet with or write to their members of Congress, urging them sign onto these Dear Colleague Letters before mid-April.

Support PEPFAR and the Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis, and Malaria

Please join Representatives Barbara Lee (D-CA) and Ann Wagner (R-MO) in the call for strong support for our bilateral global HIV/AIDS response, and our multilateral global HIV/AIDS tuberculosis, and malaria response. For information please contact Baiba.Jakubish@senate.gov in Rep. Lee's office or Moody.Burke@senate.gov in Rep. Wagner's office.

Dear Chairwoman Lowey, Ranking Member Granger, and Ranking Member Rogers:

As you consider the Fiscal Year (FY) 2020 State, Foreign Operations, and Related Programs Appropriations bill, we write to request a continuation of critical and timely support for the President's Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief (PEPFAR) and the Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis, and Malaria (Global Fund). We are grateful for your past leadership in ensuring these programs continued to be robustly funded. We look to you again as PEPFAR and the Global Fund work towards the rapid acceleration of HIV prevention and treatment programs as global efforts focus on the goal of ending the AIDS epidemic by 2030.

U.S. leadership through PEPFAR and other bilateral investments, along with multilateral investments in the Global Fund over time have been transformative in fighting the deadly HIV/AIDS epidemic that was devastating countries, and the results are astounding. In 2018 PEPFAR supported life-saving antiretroviral treatment for 14.6 million people, including over 700,000 children. Through PEPFAR support, over 6.8 million orphans, vulnerable children and their caregivers accessed critical care and support services and since its inception more than 2.4 million new infections were averted in children.

By working hand in hand with countries and partners like PEPFAR, the Global Fund efforts have saved over 27 million lives since its inception in 2002. Its 2018 annual report shows that the Fund has supported 17.5 million people on anti-retroviral treatment for HIV, 5 million people treated for TB, and has distributed 197 million insecticide-treated bed nets for malaria prevention. To better tailor the HIV/AIDS programs to those most in need, allocations for prevention for key and vulnerable populations are up by nearly 30 percent for 2017-2019 over the previous funding period. Similarly, progress on the TB epidemic hinges on finding the over four million missing cases each year. The Global Fund has focused efforts in 13 countries that account for 75 percent of missing people with TB globally to find an additional 1.5 million cases by the end of 2019.

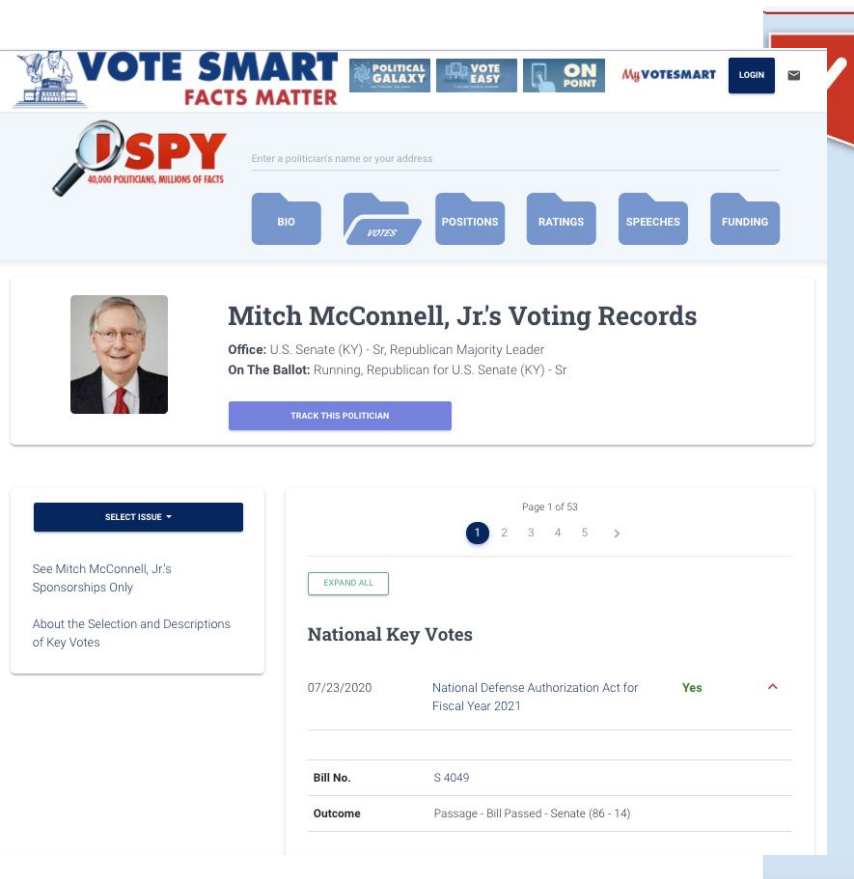

The co-epidemics must be battled together to bend the curve against the diseases and increased investments and efforts are necessary to end the epidemics. PEPFAR and the Global Fund are not only leading global efforts to improve HIV care, but they also enable countries to improve the overall health of their citizens by creating a lasting infrastructure that positions partner countries to respond to a range of health challenges and threats. PEPFAR is pushing countries towards controlling their epidemics and with its new investment case for the 2020-2022 replenishment, the Global Fund aims to save 16 million more lives.
